

NEW: New York State Dept. of Financial Services Continuing Education Requirements

Starting April 1, 2022, New York State licensed insurance producers will be unable to renew their licenses unless their 15 hours of continuing education include courses of at least:

1 hour on
NY insurance law & regulations

1 hour on ethics &
professionalism

1 hour on --

- Implicit & explicit bias
- Equal access to justice
- Serving diverse populations
- Insurance industry diversity & inclusion initiatives
- Sensitivity to cultural & other differences when interacting with clients, potential clients, or other members of the public

1 hour on sale of flood insurance through National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP)

APPLIES ONLY TO PROPERTY-CASUALTY
AGENTS & BROKERS

Plus

3 hours of enhanced flood instruction

APPLIES ONLY TO PROPERTY-CASUALTY AGENTS
& BROKERS WHO SELL FLOOD INSURANCE
DIRECTLY THROUGH NFIP OR CARRIERS

If your license will renew after March 31, 2022, plan now to take the required courses before renewal

Watch the education calendar at www.biginy.org & Big I New York's weekly education newsletter for course announcements

CONTACTS

Jim Lombardo jlombardo@biginy.org
Tim Dodge tdodge@biginy.org
Sue Keegan skeegan@biginy.org

www.biginy.org

1-800-962-7950